As we draw closer to the mid-term break, we look back on the first six weeks of the term with grateful hearts, thanking God for His faithfulness and abundant blessings upon our school community. We are delighted with the progress our pupils have made, not only in their academic pursuits but also in the sporting and cultural arenas, where they have continued to excel and make us proud. Their enthusiasm, commitment, and positive attitude have been commendable. We are also excited to be welcoming our new Head, Mr. Bothwell Risiwe next week and look forward to the leadership, vision, and fresh opportunities that this new chapter will bring to our school family.
